Amended by Resolution No. 2005-361, dated September 16, 2005.

Adopted: 9/25/92
Subject: Criminal Code

CRIMINAL CODE
OFFENSES AND PUNISHMENTS
Siletz Tribal Code § 12.001

§ 12.001 DEFINITIONS

(a) Dangerous Weapon. Any instrument, article, or substance which under the circumstances in which it is used, attempted to be used, or threatened to be used, is readily capable of causing death or serious injury.

(b) Deadly Weapon. Any instrument, article or substance specifically designed for and presently capable of causing death or serious physical injury.

 Note: A firearm must be loaded (i.e., shell in the firing position or chamber, or in magazine while inside firearm) and be operable to be a deadly weapon.

(c) Deadly Physical Force. Physical force that under the circumstances in which it is used is readily capable of causing death or serious injury.

(d) Peace Officer. A tribal police officer, sheriff, constable, marshal, municipal police officer, and other persons as may be designated by law.

(e) Person. A human being, and where appropriate, a tribe, a public or private corporation, an unincorporated association, a partnership, a government or a government instrumentality.

(f) Serious Physical Injury. Physical injury which creates a substantial protracted impairment of health, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ.

Adopted 9/25/92

Amended: 9/16/05

(g) Possess. To have physical possession or otherwise to exercise dominion or control over property.

(h) Public Place. A place to which the general public has access and includes but is not limited to hallways, lobbies and other parts of apartment houses and hotels not constituting rooms or apartments designed for actual residences and highways, streets, community centers, schools, places of amusement, parks, playgrounds and premises used in connection with public passenger transportation.

Justification

§ 12.002 JUSTIFICATION AS A DEFENSE

In any prosecution for an offense, justification is a defense which, if raised, the Siletz Indian Tribe must disprove beyond a reasonable doubt.

§ 12.003 USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE BY PEACE OFFICER IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE

Except as provided in § 12.001(c), a peace officer is justified in using physical force upon another person only when and to the extent that he/she reasonably believes it necessary:

- (1) To make an arrest or to prevent the escape from custody of an arrested person unless he knows that the arrest is unlawful; or
- (2) To defend himself or a third person from what he reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of physical force while preventing or attempting to prevent an escape.

§ 12.004 USE OF DEADLY PHYSICAL FORCE BY PEACE OFFICER IN MAKING AN ARREST OR IN PREVENTING AN ESCAPE

Notwithstanding the provision as set out in section 12.001(c), a peace officer may use deadly physical force only when he reasonably believes that:

CRIMINAL CODE
OFFENSES AND PUNISHMENTS
Siletz Tribal Code § 12.001

- (1) The crime committed by the person was an offense or attempt to commit an offense involving the use or threatened imminent use of physical force against a person, (e.g., murder, manslaughter, forcible sex offenses, robbery, or offense assault); or
- (2) The crime committed by the person was kidnapping, arson, escape in the first degree, or any attempt to commit such a crime; or
- (3) Regardless of the particular offense which is the subject of the arrest or attempted escape, the use of deadly physical force is necessary to defend the peace officer or another person from the use or threatened imminent use of deadly physical force; or
- (4) The crime committed by the person was a offense or an attempt to commit an offense and under the totality of the circumstances existing at the time and place, the use of such force is necessary; or
- (5) The officer=s life or personal safety is endangered in the particular circumstances involved.

Note #1: Nothing in subsection (1) of this section constitutes justification for reckless or criminally negligent conduct by a peace officer amounting to an offense against or with respect to innocent persons whom he is not seeking to arrest or retain in custody.

Note #2: Before deadly force may be used, if necessary to prevent escape, a peace officer must have probable cause to believe that the suspect poses a threat of serious physical harm, either to the officer, or others, and where practical, some warning must be given.

Inchoate Crimes

§ 12.005 ATTEMPT

Penalty for attempting a crime is generally one degree lower than the penalty for the crime itself. An attempt to commit a crime is committed when a person intentionally engages in conduct which constitutes a substantial step toward the commission of a crime.

CRIMINAL CODE
OFFENSES AND PUNISHMENTS
Siletz Tribal Code § 12.001

§ 12.006 SOLICITATION

Penalty for soliciting a person to commit a crime is generally one degree lower than the penalty for the crime itself. The crime of solicitation is committed when a person, with intent to cause another to commit a offense, or class A offense, commands or solicits such other person to engage in that conduct.

§ 12.007 CONSPIRACY

Penalty for conspiracy to commit a crime is the same as the penalty for the crime itself. A criminal conspiracy is committed when a person, with intent that a offense or class A offense, be performed, agrees with one or more persons to engage in or cause the performance of such a crime.
